COMING ATTRACTIONS AT LOCAL THEATERS

Theatrical Revival at Hand; Outlook for Year

Main Street Soon to Become Rialto-Legitimate Attractions Again Coming Into Their Own

A theatrical revival is at hand in Memblis. Lovers of the legitimate drama are sure to have the privilege of again being able to see the best shows, for the New Lyric under the new management has a booking for the coming meason which promises to afford the best line of attractions which has been booked since 1914; and with the possition of a second legitimate house, at least before another season has not going to be almost eliminated in the round legitimate attractions as she without, like the Martin having to see steris the making of a Rialto out of Main strat.

Meanwhile any one who knows Martin Beck and his associates of the Orpheum cirouit realizes that this organization can be counted on to afford vaudeville de luxe for the more exacting playgoers as well as keep the lower-priced amisements up to hish standard.

On Aug. 25 the regular Orpheum scanon will open with the house redecorated, repainted and a season's booking far ahead in excellence of any in a decade according to Manager Hertram and Vannah Taylor, his able assistant.

Before the year 1920 has passed away—possibly by the beginning of another theatrical season—we may see a new Orpheum for the big-time acts and the present theater turned into a three-aday house with the same class of attractions, but a slightly shorter bill as

As a result of the choking up of the main drain at the municipal swimming pool at Main street and Saffarins avenue, the water has been changed but once this season, thus transforming the mammoth bathing bowl into a mosquito membator. According to the rumblings of citizens, from the stagnant water hordes of mosquitos emanate by the myriads.

The citizens explain that for the past few years local, state and the national governments have appropriated fundato abate the mosquito menace in this territory.

The bayou adjacent to the swimming pool, which always has water in it, in days gone by received attention from the sanitary implectors. It is now explained by the indignant citizens of that vicinity that the retainers to hold the distingentant materials used to purify the hayou water were removed about two months ago by the authorities.

In provious seasons there were threat cights that illuminated the swimming pool, but now there is nothing left but he bare wires.

The patrons of the pool claim that without lights the place is made dangerous to the swimmers as a bather in distress could not be located in the darkness.

COTTON AND LINTERS RATE IS TO BE RAISED

HICKMAN, Ky., Aug. 9. (Spl.)—The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad proposes to make an advance upon the cotton and linters rate from Hickman to Memphis, Tenn. This matter is to be heard by the United States traffic committee at Louisville, Ky., Aug. 13. Also 13 cents per bale will be added for delivery to Memphis Warehouse company. If Hickman cotton shippers are interested, they will be given a hearing on the date mentioned above at the committee's hearing room in the Starks building in Louisville.

This section being devoted very largely to the growing of cotton and as all cotton is shipped from here to Memphis warehouses, this will be a big item for Hickman shippers and growers. It helps to have the smact change ready in paying city taxes. adv. Hickman shippers and growers.

The latest song hits from the musical comedy stage and a varjety of dances, including toe, ballet, each tric and jazz will be offered in this act by Walter James, Sten Anderson and Mijerd King. They have a number of new costume creations and carry their own set of silk scenery.

"Married Half an Hour," a humorous skit, which Duffy and Montague will present, is brimful of laughs and comedy. Santo Santucci, monarch of the accordion, will render classical and popular selections. Lawrence Ward and Michael King will offer a novel originality, "My Girl." A man and two shapely girls, who comprise the Jack Moore Trio, will be seen in a series of thrilling feats on the threaded steel.

Charles Ray, always a favorite among movie fans here, will take the leading role in "Bill Henry," the film attraction. It deals with the efforts of an ambificus young selesman to win success and ends with him winning a girl.

Topping the bill will be Peddrick and Devere in their song and dance revue of 1919; Fields and Weils, comedians who have a very unioue skit; J. Edwin Lessig & Co., who will offer a humorous playlet, and Sylvester, who is a talka tive sleight-of-hand artist and card manipulator.
